

Earth Is No More

Earth lays bare

By the stench of corruption

Earth is polluted and sin goes on unabated.

The fire has been prepared.

The word goes forth:

Repent but who will listen?

Sin goes on unabated

The stench fills Satan's nostrils
as a most fragrant and pleasing aroma.

The Earth rolls as drunkard fool.

And shouts can be heard from the sea of humanity:

Eat, Drink, and Be Merry for Tomorrow we die.

And sin goes unabated

The fire has been prepared.
